

CAN't sleep

Intro

Verse 1

Didn't notice the sun running by
I was too busy working
Didn't see gravity's pull on my eyes
Always felt the hurting

Not sure this is how I should be spending my time
Not sure this is what I wanna say with my life
Doing shit I don't wanna do
Not sure I'll ever be right

PreChorus 1

Am I worth waiting for?
Am I worth fighting for?

Chorus 1

I've always been a dreamer
But it's past three
Mind so tired

Nightmare was a screamer
Mind's racing
I can't fall back asleep

I can't sleep

I can't sleep

Verse 2

All these people are wishin me bad
Without my permission

So I push away my friends
Hugs and days they send my way

I'd be ok if I just let my story breathe
I'd be ok if I just set my worries free
But like an angel lashing out
Keep it bottled in 'til they all leave

Prechorus 2

Am I worth waiting for?
Am I worth fighting for?

Chorus 2

I've always been a dreamer
But it's past three
Mind so tired

Nightmare was a screamer
Mind's racing
I can't fall back asleep

Outro

Am I worth waiting for
Am I worth fighting for

Three becomes four

Four becomes five
And five becomes the time
Every damn night

That I lose my mind

Explicit version = This f*ckin sucks
Clean version = Another sleepless night
