

Looking UP (at the world)

Intro

I just don't know how to enjoy life anymore
I've been struggling for so long

Verse 1

It's like drowning
You're so desperate
You'll grab onto anything

I fight the pain
Look normal but the tears
Are always there hiding

PreChorus 1

I've been up 2 minutes and I already wanna lay down
Brain screams I'm just waiting to die
No one hears my sadness cemented inside

Chorus 1

Everything's made to be broken
Things were born to break down
But I'm way too young to
Always be laying down
Flat on the fuckin' ground

Verse 2

Days become months
Everything's a struggle
I run ready to jump

I miss the things that made me me
Don't know how to avoid the speedbumps

what do I do I'm sunk

PreChorus 2

I've been up 2 minutes and I already wanna lay down
Brain screams I'm just waiting to die
No one hears my sadness cemented inside

Chorus 2

Everything's made to be broken
Things were born to break down
But I'm way too young to
Always be laying down
Flat on the fuckin' ground

Bridge

I look for hope
Wherever I can
Maybe one day
I will be better
And I will get
Out of this quicksand

Verse 3

Every yellow brick's going down the wrong road
I'm upset the world threw me away
No one looks down at me
They don't know how much I'm missing
Looking up at the world

Everything's made to be broken
Things were born to break down
But I'm way too young to
Always be laying down
