

Perfection From Every Angle

Intro

You are perfection
Perfection is you

Verse 1

Getting ready for a Saturday night
I counted days all week long
You're such a sight for my eager eyes
I'm excited to see you tonight

Your boots and nylons excite
My thirsty eyes long to swim in your water
You're so worth the hype
Lusty smile with calves that mesmerize

Chorus 1

We dance we flirt
We talk dirty tonight
Energy is picking up
The mood feels just right

The way you're movin tonight
Your curves look so tight
Boys, just can't help checking you out

Because

You're perfection from every angle tonight!

Verse 2

Stage is set and the lights bark
Can't believe how lucky I am

We're swaying hard in the dark
Your smirk teases my hungry thighs

Jealous eyes have seen enough
I'm the golden guy in the room
Now we're dancing kinda rough
And you're hot as hell

Chorus 2

We dance we flirt
We talk dirty tonight
Energy is picking up
The mood feels just right

The way you're movin tonight
Your curves look so tight
Boys, just can't help checking you out

Because

You're perfection from every angle tonight!

Bridge

Your body puts me in heat
But you're more than that
You're perfect because you're so sweet

Chorus 3

We dance we flirt
We talk dirty tonight
Energy is picking up
The mood feels just right

The way you're movin tonight
Your curves look so tight
Boys, just can't help checking you out

Because

You're perfection from every angle tonight!
