

STARTing Over

Intro

Verse 1

Not every day
Leads to a rainbow
Not every hurricane
Is meant for you
Bad luck won't last forever
Believe it or not
Happy will find its way to you

PreChorus 1

We all have something we think we need to hide
Being human means we always feel the need to feed the pride

(let it all go)

Chorus 1

Starting Over
It's ok if you have to
Starting Over
Doesn't mean life is thru
Starting Over
Is something you can do
Trust me
I've been there too

Verse 2

I didn't live my dreams
Because I was too busy living my fears
Til I picked up my head out of the water
And learned to breathe again

And so will you

Verse 3

Not every swing
Leads to a hit
Not every heartache
Is meant for you
Roses come in many colors
But they all have thorns
Keep trying good things will happen for you

Prechorus 2

We all have something we think we need to hide
Being human means we always feel the need to feed the pride

(let it all go)

Chorus 2

Starting Over
It's ok if you have to
Starting Over
Doesn't mean life is thru
Starting Over
Is something you can do
Trust me
I've been there too

Verse 4

I didn't live my dreams
Because I was too busy living my fears
Til I picked my head out of the water
And learned to breathe again

And so will you

Outro

This too shall pass
Oh just let it all go

Starting over is not the end of the world

You got this
