

Why do We Never have SeX?? Lyrics

Intro

Verse 1

You used to climb me like a hotel bed
We used to sneak kisses in parking lots
We used to skip dinner just to get undressed
Now we just lie here, no longer obsessed

You say you're tired and I say I'm good
We say goodnight stay on opposite sides
I know life's heavy yeah, I feel that too
But when's the last time, I got lost in you?

PreChorus 1

I don't wanna
Make this a fight
I don't wanna
Ruin tonight
But something's been missing for way too long

And I don't know
How to say it right

Chorus 1

Why do we never have sex?

We hug
We text
We still Netflix
It's not that I'm mad
I'm just perplexed

Why do we never have sex?

We talk
We rest
We crash then stress
Look I'm not trying, to make a mess

But, why do we never have sex?

Transition

Verse 2

We plan a weekend a whole three months out
Then cancel and pass out and don't even try
I know we're drowning and the bills are tight
But we still got good days, when we don't even fight

Things finally calm down and we both just scroll
We're chasing dreams and losing nights
But even five minutes behind closed doors
Could remind us, what we're fighting for

PreChorus 2

I don't wanna
Make this a fight
I don't wanna
Ruin tonight
But something's been missing

And we both know
This doesn't feel right

Chorus 2

Why do we never have sex?

We hug
We text
We still Netflix
It's not that I'm mad

I'm just perplexed

Why do we never have sex?

We talk

We rest

We crash, then stress

Look I'm not trying, to make a mess

But, why do we never have sex?

Bridge

I miss the fire, the way you looked at me

Back when desire, didn't need batteries

We're still in love, but let's be real

Don't you miss the way that sex used to feel?

Maybe we're tired, maybe we're scared

Maybe it's easier, not to go back there

But I still want you, like I did back then

So tell me why did we stop being us again?

Chorus 3

Why do we never have sex?

We hug

We text

We still Netflix

It's not that I'm mad

I'm just a wreck

Why is it that we never have sex?

We talk

We rest

We crash then stress

We're still in love but what did we expect?

Can we please talk, can we connect?
And figure out what happens next

Why we never have sex

Outro

Can we leave the world outside for a sec
And get tangled up like we just met, again?

And maybe even have a little sex...
