

Which is Mightier?

Some say the pen is mightier than the sword,
Because it is usually writers and not soldiers who make the record.

The impact of the news, whether real or fake,
Can be a powerful tool for goodness' sake.

Day after day reports of your failures may finally take a toll.

This can harm more deeply than a sword if the truth be told.

With the Internet today, a bully no longer needs to be bigger or stronger,
And shit that's spread across the web will last so much longer.

To stop a bully don't respond, they've got no power without numbers,
Their strength will fade to obscurity and soon pass into slumber.

Swords may break or rust away depending on their metal,
But words spoken in hatred remain forever unsettled.

So which do you think is mightier?
